That they have established the identity of the bandit who was shot and killed by Express Messenger Charles Baxter on the night of October 3, 1900, when an attempt was made to rob the express car on the Kansas City, St. Joseph & Council Bluffs railroad at the Mosquito creek crossing just south of this city, is the firm of Constable Alberti and Deputy United States Marshal George F. McCoy. They have been working for some months past on a clew and say there is no doubt but the dead bandit was Frank Van Loan, who at the time of the holdup lived in the vicinity of Hamburg, Ia, The day following the attempted holdup of the train a woman employed at the Grand hotel and known there as "Pearl," suddenly disappeared. It was subsequently learned that the woman's name was Van Loan and recently from her the officers learned sufficient to satisfy them that the bandit shot by Messenger Baxter was her husband. Several different pictures of the dead bandit were taken while the body was at Lunkley's undertaking rooms awaiting identification, and these have recently been positively identified by friends and persons who were acquainted with

The officers secured information showing that Van Loan and a companion were in Council Bluffs the night of the robbery, and were seen in the vicinity of the Burlington depot about three hours before it took place. It is said that Van Loan's wife admitted to the officers that it was her husband who was killed by Baxter, and she also furnished them with the name of Van Loan's accomplice, who succeeded in making his escape. Miners Near Colfax Compromise with Companies on Question of Transportation to and from Mines.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) DES MOINES, Sept. 3 - (Special.)-Last, but by no means of least importance, the one Iowa candidate for the presidency. George Edwin Taylor, will present, in due time, in the form of a letter of acceptance, his views on political matters and the reasons why he and his party should receive the support of the colored people of the United States in the coming election. Mr. Taylor has been duly notified of his nomination, and his acceptance letter is in course of preparation. As the candidate for the presidency of the national liberty party, Mr. Taylor and his associates believe that they may hold the balance of power, which will decide who shall be president.

The national liberty party, composed wholly of negroes, assembled in St. Louis July 5 and adopted a platform of principles. Mr. Taylor will enlarge upon this statement; but more especially will be deal with the attitude of political parties toward the colored vote of the country and with disfranchisement in the south. He will condemn the movement for disfranchisement as utterly unconstitutional and revolutionary. He will arraign the south- LEWIS WINS AT GUN SHOOT ern states for their attitude, but will not attempt to deny that there is some excuse Gets Traveling Set Which is Trophy for them.

The career of George Taylor has been in teresting. Son of a slave, he was taken in carly life to Wisconsin, where he received a good education. He entered the newspaper business as an employe of "Brick' Pomeroy, at La Crosse, and rose to the position of city editor of the Democrat. He afterwards edited an evening paper and was half owner, and it was a paper of general circulation. He came to Iowa, engaged in publishing a newspaper at Oskaloosa, then managed a coal mine at Albia, turned to farming and now lives in Ottumwa. He took part in the labor movement in Wisconsin, and was a delegate from that state to a convention which organized the union labor party. Twelve years ago he was selected by a republican state convention as an alternate delegate-at-large to the national convention at Minneapolis, He had joined with other prominent ne groes in a movement to demand certain things in the party platform, and at Minneapolis he went before the resolutions committee. He was pledged to do all he could to defeat Harrison's renomination and he virtually walked out of the conven tion and became a bolter.

In 1896 Mr. Taylor was selected as an al ternate district delegate to the democratic national convention. Later he assisted in forming the national democratic negro league, and has been its president four years.

Less Than Thirty-Three Days.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—L. L. Whitman and Charles Carris arrived at the Automobile Club of America at 1:40 p. m. today at the end of a cross-continent automobile trip from San Francisco. They covered a distance of 4,500 miles in thirty-two days twenty hours and twenty minutes, thus breaking the old record by nearly a month. The time before recorded was sixty-one days, made by Tom Fetch last year.

The men traveled in a motor air cooled instead of water cooled, as usual. It has been supposed the trip could not be made in an air cooled motor. Little riding at night was done. The longest single day's journey was 325 miles, between Toledo and Rochester. At Ossining R, C. Seymour and Eddie Ryan met Whitman and Carris and escorted them to this city. But he has long regarded himself as independent in politics, and not tied up with any party. This year he has done very little political work until he became the nominee of this new party for the presidency. His letter will be out in a few days. State Buys Printing Outfit.

The state of Iowa today bought a printing outfit and will establish a printing house on a small scale suitable for teaching boys the art of printing. The last general assembly appropriated $3,000 for this asked for $4,000, in order to put in a printing and binding outfit. Today the board purchased a book and news press, a large jobber, paper cutter, stitcher and all the type and material necessary for a firstclass small printing office. This will be located at the State Industrial School for Boys at Eldora. The boys are to be taught Boys at Eldora. The boys are to be taught printing as well as other trades and it is believed that at this office the state will be able to do a large amount of printing necessary on state documents. The printing done for the Beard of Control and all state firstitutions is not done by the state printer, as other kinds of printing, but is let out on contract, and there is a growing amount of this. The state has had printing outfits, but very poor ones, at printing outfits, but very poor ones, at some of the other institutions. This will be the most extensive experiment of the kind made.

Iowa Prison Population Stationary. The reports from the two state prisons in Iowa show that there is little change in the number of prisoners from year to year. At Anamosa the number of prisoners is 355, which is a decrease of twenty-four in the year, while at Fort Madison the number is 472, an increase of thirty in the year, As a whole, however, the prisons are not maintaining the population they had ten years ago and the tendency is to have fewer sent to the prisons from the court and for shorter terms. At other institutions the reports show little change in population. At Eldora there are 491, a loss of two in the month. The population at Clarinda in the insane department is 328, a loss of forty-five, there being fifty transferred to Mount Pleasant. At the latter hospital the population is now 961. In the nebriate department there are twentyeight, a loss of six. At Cherokee there are 674 insane, a loss of two, and in the inebriate department twenty-six, a loss of four. At Glenwood there are 959, an increase of sixty-three in the month, due to returns from parole.

Miners Accept an Offer. The striking miners in Jasper county, about 500 in all, have accepted the terms offered by the Colfax Northern railroad in regard to transportation to and from the coal mines south of Colfax. The rate of $1.50 a month for each miner to Andersonville and $2 a month to Seevers was accepted, but the company agreed to fit up a car with comfortable seats for the miners. They had complained that they were compelled to pay for riding in an open car or a box car with no seats, and they declined longer to do so. The arbitration board settled the matter amicably.

The suits were brought by the Central tion, and the Merchants' Trust company of New York. The first named seeks to recover the sum of $200,000 which it paid as a subscriber to the underwriting syndicate of the United States Cotton Duck corporation. The Merchants' Trust company asks judgment for $100,000, which it likewise paid on a subscription to the same syndicate. The complainants allege that they were induced to invest in the new corporation on the strength of a printed statement is-

The complainants characterize the printed statement as "false, fraudulent and deceltful" and issued to deceive and defraud complainants and other investors.
